Writing

'Pollyanna' by Beatrice Porter

A couple of months ago I visited England. I went to an international school. There were a lot of students from different countries, so I wasn't too scared.

One day one of the students told me about book she likes the most. It was 'Pollyanna' by Beatrice Porter, so I decided to read it too.

'Pollyanna' is an amazing story about a girl and her unusual life vision. I really liked this book because it teaches to ~~find~~ find good things in every moment of your life.

I've read 'Pollyanna' in original because I wanted to learn new phrases and improve my English.

I think my school library should have this book because there are many topics and arguments, which can be used for our essays.
